Perform with ArtStream

Auditions for the Inclusive Theatre Companies occur in the fall for shows the following spring. Cabaret Companies hold auditions in the fall and winter.

Inclusive Theatre Companies

Actors develop and perform an original musical. The company votes on a theme, creates original characters, and improvises scenes. Scenes are then scripted to become an original one-act musical. Each performance presents two of these musicals in a double bill before a live audience.

Cabaret Companies

Actors agree on a theme for ensemble music and dance performances, and then each actor works with the choreographer and music director to develop solo and small-group music, dance, or drama performances.

Requirements to perform

- Be 18 years of age or older
- Have participated in at least 8 weeks of ArtStream classes in the past 2 years

Reserve your spot on the audition list by calling ArtStream at (301) 565-4567.

When there is space in the company, we will invite you to join us for an audition.

Thank you so much for attending our show! When we started dreaming up Prom’s the Word! last year, our vision for what it would look like was vastly different! We were disappointed that we couldn’t perform in person last May. But the actors valiantly rallied. We created a trailer to get everyone pumped for Prom’s the Word 2.0, as we’ve been calling it. And we’re so excited to present our movie version of our show to you! Company A is back, shining bigger and brighter than before! I hope you’re ready to have your socks knocked off! This is not another teen movie. We have spies, undercover detectives, powerful scientific devices invented by nerds, a competition to be prom queen, and all the high school drama and shenanigans you could ask for! I have been incredibly impressed and inspired by our actors’ and creative team’s resilience and creativity. Creating a movie on zoom was a new and challenging experience. Acting for the camera is a different skill than most of us were used to. And it often felt like we were reinventing the wheel to do even the most basic tasks. But the joy and camaraderie that I have seen from everyone throughout this process has made it all totally worth it. I hope you have as much fun watching our movie as we had creating it. Sit back, relax, and take a trip back to your high school days. After all, Prom IS the word!

I’LL SEE YOU SOMEWHERE IN DREAMLAND

Director’s Note

And with this, we come to the end of a two-year artistic process. Life has taken so many unexpected turns since we began creating this show. But out of everything I could say in this moment, I want to lift something up that has been the most important to me.

Not once was the creative spirit of this ensemble shaken.

If ever there was a testament to the power of theatre, this would be it. Side by side we have faced numerous difficult transitions and each person in this ensemble has shown up with grace and perseverance every step of the way. They taught me that, together, we can do hard things. I am in awe of these performers who have given their playfulness, their ingenuity, and their creativity to this production.

And so, as an ensemble, we offer you this. Even in the darkest of situations, even when things seem to be at their most bleak, believe in the power of dreams. When you trust in the power of imagination there will always be hope for a brighter tomorrow. As we say in the show “one good dream always sparks another.” May your dreams be joyful, sweet, and move you to share your soul with the world.

I would like to thank the production team with all the sincerity in my heart. There were so many extra outside hours put in to this project and I could not have asked for a better team of artists to take on the task.

I want to say thank you to the families and caregivers of our actors. You have been equal partners in helping rehearsals happen, and wrestling with technology and timing so that we could get the best film shots possible.

Lastly, I want to thank my fiancé, Adam. You are the most supportive person in the world and I can’t wait for you to see what all the noise on Tuesday nights has been leading up to!

Dream on my friends!
