IN THE NEWS:
The reviews are in! ArtStream’s Alexandria Theatre Companies’ performances of The Greatest Show Under the Sea and Pandora’s Labyrinth were a huge hit. We extend our gratitude to theatre critic Scott McCaffrey from the Sun Gazette for writing a stellar review. Read the full review on the Sun Gazette’s website. (sungazette.news)

VOLUNTEERS PLAY A VERY IMPORTANT ROLE AT ARTSTREAM
ArtStream is grateful to all of the volunteers and mentors who are making this season such a success! Behind every successful organization is an extraordinary volunteer team. Volunteers contribute time, energy, and caring to improve the life of each ArtStreamer. Whether working behind the scenes or acting alongside, each volunteer makes a valuable contribution. Thanks to our amazing volunteers for helping to create a role for everyone at ArtStream.

CLASS UPDATE:
Join us for virtual and in-person classes this spring and summer. Learn something new in Scriptwriting, Comedy Jam, Dance, or Stage Combat. Prepare for the stage with the introductory Mini Theater Company. Super Social Saturdays are online every Saturday and in-person once a month in Rockville or Oakton! Request tuition assistance for any class by contacting Katie Mraz at k.mraz@art-stream.org or 301-830-5887. You may sign up for classes at https://www.art-stream.org/take-a-class/

We are thrilled to celebrate Adam McCrensky, an actor from Bethesda, Maryland. Adam has performed at ArtStream for over 14 years. Adam shared with us what he loves about performing and what ArtStream means to him.

ArtStream: What's your favorite way to perform on stage?
Adam: I like singing best, but I also like dancing. I do a variety of things in the Cabaret.

ArtStream: How do you come up with your character?
Adam: I think of an idea of which person I want to be and then I share it with the group. We make up our characters together.

ArtStream: How do you make up the story?
Adam: We sit together and talk about what we want the story to be. We talk with the director too who helps us come up with the story. We each take turns talking until we come up with a theme. It’s really fun.

ArtStream: What would you tell someone who wants to join ArtStream?
Adam: I’d tell them that ArtStream is great. You can create any story and you don’t have to rely on a script that’s already been written. You get to brainstorm with the group and figure out what the story is going to be about. At ArtStream, we make our own plays and musicals. ArtStream is really fun. If you want to act in a show that you get to write yourself, ArtStream is for you. If you like theatre and have special needs, come to ArtStream.
