Perform with ArtStream

Auditions for the Inclusive Theatre Companies occur in the fall for shows the following spring. Cabaret Companies hold auditions in the fall and winter.

Inclusive Theatre Companies

Actors develop and perform an original musical. The company votes on a theme, creates original characters, and improvises scenes. Scenes are then scripted to become an original one-act musical. Each performance presents two of these musicals in a double bill before a live audience.

Cabaret Companies

Actors agree on a theme for ensemble music and dance performances, and then each actor works with the choreographer and music director to develop solo and small-group music, dance, or drama performances.

Requirements to perform

- Be 18 years of age or older
- Have participated in at least 8 weeks of ArtStream classes in the past 2 years

Reserve your spot on the audition list by calling ArtStream at (301) 565-4567.

When there is space in the company, we will invite you to join us for an audition.

UNAFJORDABLE

Director's Note

Zowie! What a long road to our play. We started the creative process for this show in January 2020 and it's dreamy to finally present it to you. This year's script is a new adaptation of our 2020 play. Last year, home renovation shows fueled our improvisations and many of us became addicted to the words shiplap, demo, and kitchen island. Ultimately, we settled on what it means to have a space to call your own. It doesn't have to be a house or an apartment. Many of us rent or share living quarters with family or friends. Home is really an idea for us. You just need a little room of your own. Some place that you can decorate the way you like. Put a poster of your favorite movie on the wall and a little plant on a window sill, and suddenly, it's your space. Come along with us as we search for an idea and the perfect place to live. We ponder questions like: Who will be the best home renovation show host on our network? Will you love Abby's designs or cheer on Bob as he brings the house down? What is that noise in the attic? Don't forget the Swedish Fish! It's nature's perfect food.

ONCE UPON A TIME IN EGYPT

Director's Note

Once Upon a Time in Egypt was such a fun show to co-direct, and we are so proud of all our talented actors and amazing creative team. After last year's virtual production of "A Tempest Tale," we did not expect another virtual season, but our actors rose to the occasion to create a new show entirely on Zoom.

Every year our company discusses and improvises themes that we are interested in exploring. In the final vote, the theme "ancient Egypt/time travel" won unanimously, and thus began our journey on The Magic Tour Bus.

Our first stop, guided groovily by our longtime music director "Music Mike" Morton, was to explore the Egyptian music scale in first song "Get on the Time Bus." Our next stop was to learn about Egyptian culture. Watch for Egyptian salutes and other traditional dance elements in Valerie Segal's brilliant choreography.

In "Fleabag" we explored what it is like to be a cat, accompanied by Music Mike's stellar lyrics and instrumentals, and Valerie's amazing puppet choreography. Teaching Artist Penny Russell guest starred as our master puppeteer and provided a puppet workshop that helped our actors bring their puppets to life.

We would not have been able to accomplish this show without our returning volunteer mentors Chris McComas and Marco Onel, and new mentors Jennifer Pollard and Samara Glymph, who stepped into leadership roles and committed their time to supporting and acting alongside our talented performers. Our fabulous assistant director Elana Polin helped us bring our characters to life through in-depth character and focus exercises, as well as supporting and encouraging everyone's creative genius with her radiant energy and enthusiasm. We would not have been able to pull off this production in six months without the extraordinary organizational and leadership skills of our stage manager Becky Webb, who kept our time bus running smoothly by navigating technical difficulties and ensuring our show was on the right timeline. Sarah Sandifer, our incredibly talented production manager and Zoom genius conquered technical challenges and behind the scenes tasks to make every ArtStream performance a roaring success. Our groundbreaking special effects are thanks to Robert Lodge, who seamlessly brings next level magic and realism as he transforms a simple "Zoom screen" into an epic movie.

A huge thank you goes out to the parents, counselors, family members, and friends who help support our actors on the other side of the Zoom screen; we truly appreciate all your support in helping our actors shine. We would also like to thank the cats of Silver Spring B: Jetta, Kenobi, Kyro, Gretl, and Ziggy Stardust, for their participation and for inspiring us all to embrace our inner "fleabag."

We hope you enjoy the show!
