So you want to run for Council? FREE Candidate Information Workshop!

Thursday, April 26th at 7:00PM at the Wilson Park Community Centre
(66 Northey's Bay Road, Woodview)

This workshop will help you decide whether to put your name forward for the October 22nd, 2018 municipal election. It will give you a clear understanding of Council's roles and responsibilities. This is NOT a debate forum nor is it dealing with the technical aspects of running a campaign.

Topics include: municipal powers, roles and responsibilities, public's role in local government, difference between governance and administration, and municipal conflict of interest and other personal responsibilities.
