

DAISY Awardees May 2020
Excerpt of awardee's nomination

Erika Medrano

L7 (Manager: Karleen Mills)

- She advocates tirelessly for her patients
- She works to find a way to ensure her patients receive the love and care that they need during her time with them.

Erin Babcock

C2 (Manager: Tyler Perkins/Anjeleena Singh)

- She is the nurse who would want taking care of you if you or a loved one is ill.
- She was caring for a patient who was in a lot of pain and had refused to be turned for days. Erin advocated changes to the pain med regimen so the patient can have better pain control. Erin prevented hospital acquired complications and the patient was able to tolerate activities and care.

Manreet Sahota

B2 (Manager: Lisa Jafari)

- She is a compassionate and caring nurse who “gives her all to her patients and family, every little bit of herself”.
- Her quick critical thinking and patient advocacy helped the patient moved to a higher level of care. Her connection with the family helped her and the family decide next steps.
- The nurse who witnessed her caring for a patient stated “I only wish she could see what a miracle she created that night”.

Michelle Liem

J4 (Manager: Dennis Manzanades)

- She is a compassionate, advocate for all her patients.
- She raises concerns with the care team on her patient's behalf that ultimately guides care decisions and raise the level of care delivered to her patients.
- One general cardiology fellow stated, “working with Michelle has made me a better physician and I look forward to working with her for years to come as I continue with my training here at Stanford.”