

This plaque symbolizes the logo of the Girls Athletic Association (GAA) with the panther mascot which was founded in October 1928 in Berkeley by Physical Education Teacher Kathryn Miller and Dean of Girls Ruth Birck. In 1977, after the Title IX requirement, the Foothills Athletic Association and Girls Athletic Association combined into a co-ed organization now known solely as Foothills Athletic Association.