Distinguished Toastmasters

Spring Convention
Achieved between
Nov 3, 2017 and Apr 20, 2018

Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM)

- ▶ Loretta M. Gibbons
- ▶ Darlene Hilland
- ▶ Edward Howes
- ▶ Alexander David Jamieson
- ▶ Dawna M. Michaud
- ▶ Dunstant B. F. Taylor
- ▶ Donna M. Wheatcroft
- ▶ David S. Wing

Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM)

- ▶ Loretta M. Gibbons, DTM

“The journey to becoming a Distinguished Toastmaster is a path unique to each individual. We are the designer, the builder and the traveler of our own path to success; all the while gathering friends and mentors to help us along the way.”

Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM)

► Darlene Hilland, DTM

“The road to DTM was not a solo endeavor, I have family and fellow toastmasters to thank for their patience through many hours of preparation, practice and presentations!

Although it's the highest achievement in TM; as a lifelong learner, DTM is but a stepping stone...look out world!”

Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM)

▶ Edward Howes, DTM

“Our lives along the journey called life are affected by many people, learning events, environmental factors and opportunities, and in my case Toastmasters. I am a better communicator, leader and friend because of my TM journey and reap the rewards of continued involvement and opportunity to continually improve and positively affect others around me.”

Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM)

- ▶ Alexander David Jamieson, DTM

“The DTM achievement means everything to me. I’m often very hard on myself and I underestimate what I really can do. Achieving DTM showed that I can achieve anything when there is a strong desire and a proven system to follow.”

Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM)

► Dunstant B. F. Taylor, DTM

“It is not much about want I gain, but the service, hard work and dedication to other clubs, members and the District.

The DTM Achievement means being a servant leader, so other will succeed with me in the Toastmasters Journey, empower others to shine, Support the growth process as a team, because we cannot achieve our goals by ourselves, other join in to mentor, coach and engage me to excel.”

Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM)

- ▶ Donna M. Wheatcroft, DTM

“The journey to DTM requires commitment and diligence to the Toastmaster’s program. Along the way there is a lot of helpfulness and encouragement from members of other clubs, in addition to my own High Riser club, who have a lot of fun while learning.”
