

Leadership Commission – Jane Potts

ONE SIZE DOES NOT FIT ALL! What works for one Deanery or Parish may not work for another. We all hope and pray for success in our CCW's. Life is busy! But how do we get there? Besides prayer, it takes creativity and persistence. Practice active listening. Be open to new ideas. No project or activity is without a few bumps in the road, but as a leader you have the ability to get things done! Don't give up while pursuing a solution. There are many roads that can be taken to reach your goal.

Recall the story of St. Monica and her son, St. Augustine. as a youth, Augustine lived a life far from the Christian faith of his mother, but Monica did not give up hope for him to embrace her faith. She continuously prayed and pursued her son until his conversion. Her persistence paid off; he returned to the faith, lived his faith, proclaimed his faith and was eventually declared a saint, as was she. All because SHE DIDN'T GIVE UP!

The Leadership Team is here to help you. (A knowledgeable and experienced group of ladies!) Feel free to email me at ldccwleadership@gmail.com with any questions or suggestions. Please share any ideas that have worked for your Deanery or Parish.

AROUND THE CORNER: LDCCW Sunday is the last Sunday in October. Our next article will include ideas for you to share with your Deaneries and Parishes.
