

Guns are a unique asset that need special attention, and should be treated differently than financial assets. Prior to becoming a member of the firm, Jim was a client for 2 years, along with several members of his family.

Jim is passionate in his work. He recognizes the importance of setting up Estate Planning documents early on, and has personally observed how this has benefited his family members.

Jim has a Bachelor of Science degree from Grand Valley State University, and his Juris Doctor degree is from The University of Toledo, College of Law. Jim has been a member of the State Bar of Michigan since 1984. He is licensed to practice in the United States District Court for the Western District of Michigan and the Eastern District of Michigan. He has also argued cases before the United States Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit. Jim's background includes a litigation practice, representing both Plaintiffs and Defendants over the years. However, his favorite area to practice law is Estate Planning.
