

Community Corrections Recognized at National Correctional Peace Officers' Memorial Conference

by Sonja Bennett-Bellamy, Communications Officer

Community Corrections recently received national recognition for its philanthropic gifts to the National Correctional Peace Officers' Foundation. The Foundation presented the Lifetime Facility Sponsor plaque to members of Community Corrections. Community Corrections Director Tracy Lee along with members of his division were recognized for their collective office contributions of more than $10,000 to the Foundation. Plaque recipients included (from left) Chief PPO Ashley Alley (Rowan County), Director Lee, Chief PPO Crystal Allen (Rowan County) and Chief PPO Fletcher Reeves (Wilkes County). The plaques were presented during the National Correctional Peace Officers' Memorial Conference held in Houston, Texas.

