When two strangers meet by letter during World War II, a love story begins. Tony Award-winning playwright Ken Ludwig tells the joyous, touching story of his parents' courtship, and all its highs and lows, with great humor and heart.

The cast features Cape Rep favorites Amanda Collins (Fun Home, Men On Boats, My Name is Asher Lev) as Louise Rabiner and Lewis D. Wheeler (The Tuna Goddess, Rough Crossing) as Jack Ludwig. The production is directed by Art Devine (The Tuna Goddess, Topdog/Underdog, Sunday in the Park with George) whose work as Cape Rep's Resident Playwright includes 9-Ball, Winter Wheat and Bottom of the Sky.

All shows will be in Cape Rep's Indoor Theater, 3299 Main Street, Brewster. All Cape Rep staff and cast members have been fully vaccinated. All patrons will be required to show proof of vaccination. All patrons will be required to wear a mask during performances. For further information or to purchase tickets, contact the box office at 508.896.1888 or online at www.caperrep.org.
