

Nurture Nature Retreat and Wild Walk

Saturday, August 12, 2017

9:00am -2:30pm

Bachechi Open Space at the Bosque and Arboretum, Albuquerque

Presented by Rev. Dr. LoraKim Joyner

Join us in learning how we can live more deeply, more connected, more in love with nature, including human nature, and nurture ourselves through nature.

During Our Time Together We Will:

Slow down and connect with each other and the world of nature

Nurture each other with discussion and listening

Experience a multi-media presentation highlighting five natures:

Emotional, Social, Multispecies, Ecological, and Spiritual Intelligence

Go deeper with nature meditations (both silent and guided meditations)

Enjoy brief outdoor nature experiences

Rev. Dr. LoraKim Joyner is an inspiring speaker, wildlife veterinarian, Unitarian Universalist minister, and trainer in Nonviolent Communication. She draws on 30 years working in Latin America with marginalized people and endangered wildlife and 20 years working in Unitarian Universalist ministry. She is also an adjunct professor at the Unitarian Universalist seminary, Meadville Lombard Theological School, where she teaches "Multi-species and Ecological Ministry, Theology, and Justice" and "Compassionate Communication."

$20.00 Registration Fee includes the retreat, coffee, snacks, vegetarian/vegan lunch

Checks payable to One Earth Conservation and mailed with registration form to:

Animal Advocates, First Unitarian Church, 3701 Carlisle Blvd NE, Albuquerque, NM 87110

Or

Register online with a credit card:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/nurture-nature-retreat-and-wild-walk-tickets-35445878577>

Information at the Meet-up site: <https://www.meetup.com/Nurture-Nature-Community-Albuquerque/>

One Earth Conservation: <https://www.oneearthconservation.org/>

And on the First Unitarian Animal Advocates Facebook page

Retreat Hosted by: First Unitarian Animal Advocates and Earth Web Committees