

SAT. JULY 29, 2017, 9-12:30

HOLY ROSARY CATHOLIC CHURCH, ROSARIO HALL
5415 FORTUNA RD NW, ALBUQUERQUE, NM 87105

REWILDING OUR WAY: Creation Care Rising in New Mexico

Workshop celebrating the intersection of nature & scripture

Presenter and facilitator Todd Wynward is a board member of NM Interfaith Power and Light, author, father, public school founder, small-scale farmer, wilderness educator and Mennonite minister for watershed discipleship. Todd lives in Taos where he shepherds TiLT, a place-based incubator for intentional living that honors earth, faith and community. His book, Rewilding the Way: Break Free to Follow an Untamed God was published in 2015 by Herald Press. Taostilt.org, rewildingtheway.com and toddwynward@gmail.com.

Schedule of interactive presentations

9-9:15 Welcome and introduction

9:15-10:00 Why Should Christians Care About Creation?

The Faith Basis for an Earth-Honoring Life

10-10:45 What Did you Do When You Knew?

Poetry, Stories and Living Examples

Break

11-11:45 How Then Shall We Live?

Inspiring Social Movements All Around Us

11:45-12:30 Information to Transformation:

We Are the People God Has Been Waiting For

12:30 Lunch and more sharing

Lunch included:

Enchiladas and drinks provided

Please bring salads, sides and dessert

Free to All

Love Offering Ask

Registration by July 22

RSVP & Info

judyetraeger@gmail.com

CO-SPONSORED BY:

NM Interfaith Power & Light
Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary
St. John XXIII Creation Care
Committee