What to Expect
Borough Market is one of the oldest and most celebrated food markets in the world, and London Bridge is the historic neighborhood that grew up around it. This is the best food tour in London Bridge, and one of the top-rated things to do in London for food lovers visiting from abroad. Over 3 hours and 6 hand-picked stops, you will explore Borough Market and the London Bridge area with a local guide who knows every address worth knowing. English food has a reputation. This tour aims to change it. From a bacon and egg bap to award-winning fish and chips, artisanal British cheeses paired with ale, cider or honey mead, and a proper sticky toffee pudding, every stop is chosen for quality and the tastings add up to a full meal.

London Bridge (Pass By)
Join our London Bridge Food Tour and explore the flavors of one of London's most iconic areas. Led by a local guide, you'll visit the famous Borough Market with over 100 vibrant food stalls. Start your tour with a warm traditional sausage roll, then enjoy award-winning fish and chips—crispy, golden, and uniquely British. Discover the difference between chips and French fries as you taste your way through local favorites. At a historic pub, savor a curated selection of British cheeses, paired with grapes, fig cake, and chutneys. Sip on local beers, ales, ciders, or non-alcoholic options. For dessert, indulge in a classic English sweet treat served with traditional English breakfast tea. To top it all off, you'll be surprised with our signature Secret Dish, revealed only on the day. This small-group food tour offers a true taste of British culture, perfect for foodies visiting London.
