

TRANSFORMING EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP SERIES

The University of Tampa Department of Education &
Hillsborough County Public Schools

Invite you to spend an evening with Mr. Geoffrey Canada
“Leadership is Only as Great as Those Around You”

Geoffrey Canada served as President of the Harlem Children's Zone from 1990 through 2014. An educator, author and tireless social activist, Mr. Canada has engaged in pioneering work to close the educational disparities gap for the children of Harlem. Mr. Canada has been profiled by 60 minutes and has been interviewed multiple times by interviewers such as Charlie Rose and Oprah Winfrey. His TED talk entitled "Our Failing Schools: Enough is Enough!" has been viewed by hundreds of thousands of educators; and he was prominently featured in the 2010 award-winning documentary at the Sundance Film Festival, "Waiting for Superman."

Save the Date – Invitations Forthcoming
Tuesday, February 20, 2018 6:30pm at the David Falk Theater
428 West Kennedy Blvd., Tampa. FL 33606

This is a free event sponsored in part by the TD Charitable Foundation, The University of Tampa and Hillsborough County Public Schools.

