The Word of God

ENTRANCE HYMN
All Things Bright and Beautiful Martin Shaw

[Refrain]
All things bright and beautiful
All creatures great and small
All things wise and wonderful
The Lord God made them all.

[Verse 1]
Each little flow'r that opens
Each little bird that sings
He made their glowing colours
He made their tiny wings.

[Verse 2]
The purple-headed mountain
The river running by
The sunset and the morning
That brightens up the sky.

[Verse 3]
The cold wind in the winter
The pleasant summer sun
The ripe fruits in the garden
He made them, every one.

[Verse 4]
He gave us eyes to see them
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty
Who has made all things well.

Amen.

The Lessons

FIRST READING: Esther 7:1-6, 9-10; 9:20-22

The people sit.

A Reading from the book of Esther.

The king and Haman went in to feast with Queen Esther. On the second day, as they were drinking wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request? Even to the half of my kingdom, it shall be fulfilled." Then Queen Esther answered, "If I have won your favor, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me—that is my petition—and the lives of my people—that is my request. For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. If we had been sold merely as slaves, men and women, I would have held my peace; but no enemy can compensate for this damage to the king." Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who has presumed to do this?" Esther said, "A foe and enemy, this wicked Haman!" Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen. Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs in attendance on the king, said, "Look, the very gallows that Haman has prepared for Mordecai, whose word saved the king, stands at Haman's house, fifty cubits high." And the king said, "Hang him on that." So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the anger of the king abated. Mordecai recorded these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, enjoining them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and also the fifteenth day of the same month, year by year, as the days on which the Jews gained relief from their enemies, and as the month that had been turned for them from sorrow into gladness and from mourning into a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, days for sending gifts of food to one another and presents to the poor.

Psalm 124
Remain seated.

1 If the LORD had not been on our side, *
let Israel now say;

2 If the LORD had not been on our side, *
when enemies rose up against us;

3 Then would they have swallowed us up alive *
in their fierce anger toward us;

4 Then would the waters have overwhelmed us * and the torrent gone over us;

5 Then would the raging waters *
have gone right over us.

6 Blessed be the LORD! *
he has not given us over to be a prey for their teeth.

7 We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler; *
the snare is broken, and we have escaped.

8 Our help is in the Name of the LORD, *
the maker of heaven and earth.

SECOND READING: James 5:13-20
The people sit.

A Reading from the letter of James.

Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest. My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE HYMN We Are One Body Celebrate 183
All stand.

We are one Body, bound by one Spirit,
Called by one Lord to one hope and faith.
Bind us to You, Lord, and to each other,
Bind us together with bonds of love.

We are one family, all with one Father,
God who is over all and in all.
Bind us to You, Lord, and to each other,
Bind us together with bonds of love.

Baptized in water, and by God's Spirit,
We are forever made one in love.
Bind us to You, Lord, and to each other,
Bind us together with bonds of love.

GOSPEL: Mark 9:38-50
All stand.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us." But Jesus said, "Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward. "If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched. "For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON AND PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE
The Stations of Creation
Today God's creation will preach! Participate in a sacred and prayerful scavenger hunt on our church grounds by exploring the stations below in solitude or with a group. You may pray the stations in any order you wish. At the end of 15 minutes, a bell will call you to return to our worship space.

Trees - Find a tree. You may wish to stand below it and look up. Place your hand on its trunk, touch its leaves—does the tree make any sounds? Then pray the following:

I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever. - Psalm 52, verse 8

Dear God, thank you for the gift of trees. Open our hearts as conifers shed their cones like tears for seasons gone by. Open our ears to old sycamores that can tell a story in their bark. Help us taste the sweetness of life like the maples, and give us wisdom like oaks that reach the stars. Your Son prayed among olive trees in the groves of Gethsemane. Give us now a reverence for the trees' silent witness. When we walk on parched trails, remind us to bow our heads in thanksgiving for all the rain we have known. Amen.

- Adapted from a prayer by the Rev. Becca Stevens

Land - Walk and/or pause anywhere on our parish grounds. Look down and around at the land. When you are ready, pray:

"The earth is God's, and all its fullness; The world and those who dwell upon it."—Psalm 24, verse 1

Dear God, this land belongs to no one but you. The Earth was here before us and will endure after we are gone. Remind us to walk gently upon this precious earth, taking only what we need, leaving little waste, nurturing the soil, revitalizing the land to sustain future generations.

Remind us that the land we walk and worship upon today is the ancestral land of the Wampanoag people. Keep us mindful of their historical roots in this place, the many generations who were stewards of this land. Help us to acknowledge and repent of the history of pain, disease, and bloodshed the Wampanoag and other Native peoples endured at the hands of Christian European colonizers. Help us to listen to our Native neighbors, to learn from their wisdom, and to be in solidarity with them as they keep their sacred traditions and culture alive and seek to reclaim, reassert, and revive their sovereignty.

Dear God, this land belongs to no one but you. The Earth was here before us and will endure after we are gone. Remind us to walk gently upon this precious earth, taking only what we need, leaving little waste, nurturing the soil, revitalizing the land to sustain future generations. Amen.

- Adapted from a prayer by Hila Ratzabi

Pollinators - Walk, pause, look around and listen for bees, moths, butterflies, and other insects and pollinators. When you hear or see one, pray the following:

Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweetness to the soul and health to the body. - Proverbs 16:24

God, our Provider, we praise you for pollinators, for the many beings who are indispensable in bringing food to our tables—birds, flies, bats, beetles, Butterflies, moths, and bees, who also give us the sweet gift of honey. Bless native plants—their flowering, fruiting, and feeding of this ecosystem. Bless species at risk: rusty-patched and yellow-banded bumble bees. Bless our attempts to partner in the restoration and health of this land. Bless the web of life, our deep connections, our interdependence, our giving and receiving. Amen.

- Adapted from a prayer by the Burning Bush Forest Church

"The Prayer of the Bee," from Prayers for the Ark

Lord,
I am not one to despise Your gifts.
May You be blessed
Who spread the riches of Your sweetness
for my zeal....
Let my small span of ardent life
melt into our great communal task;
to lift up to Your glory
this temple of sweetness,
a citadel of incense,
a holy candle, myriad-celled,
moulded of Your graces
And of my hidden work.

- Carmen Bernos De Gasztold, translated by Rumer Godden

Birds - Walk, pause, look around, and listen for the sights and sounds of birds. As you walk, keep an eye out for feathers (it is the season when birds molt, losing their summer feathers and growing new ones for the cooler weather ahead). When you see or hear birds or their feathers, stop and pray the following prayer.

Even the sparrow finds a home and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. - Psalm 84:3

Dear Jesus, help us to remember that the Holy Spirit descended on you like a dove at your Baptism, and that you told your disciples that not a single sparrow can fall to the ground without God knowing it. We give you thanks for birds and the way they glorify you with their songs and with their being. We ask your blessing on the birds of the air, the sea, and the ground, remembering those who will remain in place for the winter, and those who will be migrating great distances in the weeks ahead. May the birds remind us of our interconnection with you, with one another, and with all things. Amen.

Garden - Find a section of our church gardens. Look closely at the plants growing there. What do you notice? Are there flowers? Seed pods? What color are the leaves? Are all the plants the same, or are there a variety? What season of life are the plants in? How do you know? How are the plants growing together—do they seem to be cooperating, or in competition? When you are ready, pray:

Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid. - John 19:41

Creator God, in the beginning you planted a garden, and filled it with animals, birds, insects, and seed-bearing plants. In the garden you first met us, your creatures. In the garden Jesus agonized over the path of suffering love, in the garden he rose to make all creation new. And so we pray for our church gardens and for all gardens, and for those who labor in them. May they be places not only of fertile soil, abundant food, and joyful labor, but also places of learning to tend and keep, bearing the fruit of healing and hope. Creator God, we ask you to shower down your blessings on our gardens. Amen.

- Adapted from a prayer by the Rev. Nurya Love Parish

Water - Find water or a source of water (hint: there are several spigots on the outside of our church buildings). Pause to consider and give thanks for all the ways you have already used water today. What is your favorite water-related place or memory? When you are ready, pray the following litany:

Dear God, in the beginning, your Spirit hovered over the waters. The water you called into being is at the heart of all that lives. Mindful of the many ways water affects our lives, I pray to you now for our waters and for the life of the world around us.

I pray for all people of faith, and for the transformations in their lives that are marked by the sacredness of water: at the Red Sea, in the Jordan River, in ritual baths, in the washing of feet, and in Holy Baptism.
Silence

I pray for the leaders of nations, corporations, and communities around the world, that they may exercise wise stewardship over the waters of their lands, so that all people may have clean water to drink and may live free from waterborne diseases.

Silence

I pray for the wisdom to shape creative solutions to conflicts over water in the dry places of our planet, and for justice and peace in desert lands.
Silence

I pray for all the waters of the earth: for oceans and seas, for rivers and streams, for lakes and ponds, for watersheds, marshes, and swamps, for the waters beneath the ground; and for all creatures that live in the waters of the earth.
Silence

I pray for all who travel or work at sea or on inland waterways.
Silence

I pray for all afflicted with too much water in flood or tsunami, storm or ice; and for those people and creatures who suffer as glaciers and ice floes melt and shrink.
Silence

I pray for all who have died and for all who mourn, that their tears of grief may be turned to wellsprings of joy.
Silence

Blessed God, fountain of life: Grant that we may see all water as holy, and so protect and preserve the waters of the earth and the life they sustain. In the name of Christ, the living water, I pray. Amen.

- From Season of Creation 2024, A Celebration Guide for Episcopal Parishes

The Christ Church Thrift Shoppe - Walk to the Thrift Shoppe. You may wish to stand on the porch or put your hand on one of the walls as you pray the following scripture passage and blessing:

Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful. - Colossians 3:14-15

Dear Jesus, you taught that whenever we clothe someone in need, we are clothing you. Bless the ministry of our parish Thrift Shoppe and its volunteers, donors, and shoppers in their service of sustainability, provision, stewardship, connection, and outreach to our community. May the Thrift Shoppe remind us to clothe ourselves and one another in love each day, as we aim to follow you. Amen.

The Christ Church Food Pantry - Walk to the Food Pantry. You may wish to stand on the porch or put your hand on one of the walls as you pray the following scripture passage and blessing:

Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." - Matthew 14:16

Dear Jesus, you called your disciples to feed thousands with only a few loaves and fishes. Help us to remember this call and to serve the hungry among us. Bless the ministry of our parish Food Pantry, bless the gifts of food from your creation that are received, packaged, and sent out from this place. Bless all volunteers who serve here, and bless all who call and come here seeking nourishment and connection. And bless our lives to your service, that those who hunger for food may receive it, and that those who have food may hunger for your justice. Amen.

Stone - Find a rock or stone. Look at it, place your hand on it or pick it up—what color or colors is it? What is the texture like? Is there anything growing on it, and if yes, what does it look like? When you are ready, pray:

I abandon myself to You, O Living Presence, my strength. You are my stronghold, my freedom, Almighty One, the rock and foundation of my life, Just One, tower of strength, the source of truth and light, I call upon You, Heart of my heart, singing praises to your Name, and fear no longer holds me. - Psalm 18, verses 1-4, translated by Nan Merrill

Dear Jesus, you were buried and rose again to new life from a tomb of stone. Bless the stones of our parish church and the stones of the earth. May they support and shelter us and our fellow creatures, and may they remind us to seek and find you in the stony, hard, rocky places of our lives. Thank you for being our cornerstone and the rock of our salvation. Amen.

Seeds - Find a seed, nut, pinecone, acorn, or other fruit or berry. Hold it in your hand… what do you notice about it? When you are ready, pray:

Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches." - Matthew 13:31-32

Creating God, you have given seed for the sower, and your Son calls us to abundantly sow the life-changing seeds of his gospel. Nourish, protect, and bless all seeds, pinecones, and bulbs which are sown in hope and with love. May they bring forth bountiful fruit and beauty. Amen.

Our Neighbors - Turn and face away from the church, out to a surrounding street. Notice the homes and businesses surrounding us, the people walking and driving and biking by—these are our neighbors. When you are ready, pray the following scripture passage and prayer:

Jesus said, "The first [commandment] is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." - Mark 12:29-31

O God, you made us in your own image and redeemed us through Jesus your Son: Look with compassion on the whole human family; take away the arrogance and hatred which infect our hearts; break down the walls that separate us; unite us in bonds of love; and work through our struggle and confusion to accomplish your purposes on earth; that, in your good time, all nations and races may serve you in harmony around your heavenly throne; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
Prayer for the Human Family, from The Book of Common Prayer

THE CREED
All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN
The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and God's creation.

Silence may be kept.

Minister and People

Holy and merciful God,
we confess that we have failed to honor you
by rightly claiming our kinship with all your creatures.
We have walked heavily on your earth,
overused and wasted its resources,
taken for granted its beauty and abundance,

and treated its inhabitants unjustly,
holding future generations hostage to our greed.
Have mercy on us and forgive us our sin.
Renew in us the resolve to keep and conserve your earth as you desire and intend,
with grateful and compassionate hearts,
through your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE
All stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

DOXOLOGY 1982 Hymnal 380, v3

The Great Thanksgiving

The People remain standing.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God of all power, Source and Sustainer of the Universe,
you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.
At your command all things came to be: shining light and enfolding dark;
the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns,
and this fragile earth, our island home.
By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with the capacity for memory, reason, and skill.
You made us the stewards of your creation.
But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust;
and we turned against one another.
Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.
Again and again, you called us to return.
Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law.
And in the fullness of time you sent your eternal Word,
born of your servant Mary,
to fulfill your Law, opening for us the way of freedom and peace.
By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.
And therefore we praise you,
joining with the heavenly chorus,
with prophets, apostles, and martyrs,
and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope,
to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

SANCTUS Holy, holy, holy 1982 Hymnal S 124

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate Christ's death and resurrection as we await the day of his coming.

Therefore, O God, we who have been redeemed by Jesus Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Savior.

Sanctify us also, and let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.
Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

God of our ancestors; Redeemer and Mother of Israel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only and not for strength; for pardon only and not for renewal.

Accept these prayers and praises, Almighty God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER
As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

People and Celebrant

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Church School News - We are happy to see so many students returning this fall! We are using a new curriculum called Illustrated Ministry which is lectionary-based and which provides many print and online resources for our teachers. Students learn about one of the readings that they will hear in church at the 10:00 am service and receive a coloring activity to take with them to help them focus on the lesson. Students in grades 6 and up are invited to join our Youth Group! These students meet monthly alternating with a Friday night pizza/movie gathering and a Sunday morning discussion session. The next Youth Group gathering is on Sunday October 20 at 11:30 am. They will discuss themes from the Pixar movie WALL-E. If you have a student but have not yet registered, please use the link in Keeping Connected or fill out a registration form in class on Sunday morning.

Many thanks to those who have signed up to help in our Church School classes! We still have spots to fill in our classrooms throughout the year. Volunteers assist the lead teacher with class activities and ensure that we adhere to minimum adult supervision requirements for Safe Church guidelines. If you would like to help, please use the link in Keeping Connected or contact Su D'Ambrosio at assunta999@gmail.com.

Veterans Day at Christ Church November 10, 2024 - In 1918, On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in World War I, then known as "the Great War." Commemorated in many countries as Armistice Day the following year, the U. S. honors veterans always on November 11 and is known as Veterans Day.

Christ Church Parish invites our veterans to share their stories and photos in preparation for a special presentation on Sunday, November 10th. If you are interested in this project, please contact Lynne Neeley at lneeley123@gmail.com or 973-760-3063.

Bloomin' 4 Good Program - For the month of September, the purchase of a $10.99 bouquet in the sleeve marked "Bloomin' 4 Good" from the Stop & Shop at 127 Samoset St in Plymouth will brighten a home or make someone's day while also directing a $1 donation to the Christ Church Food Pantry. This is a great way to broaden awareness in the local community and raise donations for our organization to help fight hunger. The more bouquets sold, the greater the donation we will receive from Stop & Shop! To learn more about this program, please visit stopandshop.2givelocal.com.

Prayer Chain – Our prayer chain consists of devoted parishioners who, in confidence, pray daily for the needs of our parish family. Our mission is to lift up to God the prayers of people in need, in joy, or in thanksgiving.

All prayer requests are said for a period of 2 weeks, and all requests are kept in strict confidence. If you would like a prayer said for yourself, a member of your family or friends, please reach out to Robyn Lench Whittles 781-291-9459 or email to betty02364@gmail.com

Christ Church Thrift Shoppe - Creation Care at the Thrift Shoppe - Caring for the environment is a shared interest of friends Peg Blackwell, Kathryn Gloster and the Thrift Shoppe. As we celebrate the Season of Creation, we give special thanks to Peg and Kathryn who are active members of Sustainable Pinehills and volunteers dedicated to collecting and donating clothing and home goods for recycling, repurposing, and resale at the Thrift Shoppe. The unique partnership began during a routine Thrift Shoppe visit in 2022. Peg and Kathryn shared with leaders their vision of assisting friends and neighbors with recycling and repurposing of unneeded items. They believed that by offering pick-up and delivery of items to a charitable organization, one whose mission included community outreach, people would consider donating items that they otherwise would dispose of.

The collaboration began the following week and has become a win-win for all. Peg and Kathryn arrive weekly in a vehicle packed with donated items that provide needed inventory, while playing a pivotal role in significantly reducing waste production, conserving resources, and lowering carbon emissions. For many, “thrifting” has gained significant popularity in recent years. Shoppers indicate a desire to be part of a movement that encourages a more sustainable approach to consumption. If you have not yet visited the Thrift Shoppe, we encourage you to stop by to see how you can help support our mission and its eco-friendly approach to environmental sustainability.
