A Note on Our Sunday 10a Worship

"Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him." — Luke 24:35

The Easter season reminds us that the risen Christ keeps showing up — on the road to Emmaus, behind locked doors, in the breaking of bread — and that the church's calling has always been to be a place where people can encounter Jesus, again and for the first time.

In this moment, that calling feels especially urgent. The Episcopal Church, like many mainline traditions, is navigating a real decline in the people finding their way through our doors. We don't say that with alarm — we say it with conviction that this is exactly the moment to ask how we make room for people, perhaps unfamiliar with our particular traditions, to meet Jesus through Christ Church Parish. With that vision in mind, we're making a few intentional changes to our Sunday 10am service, effective this Easter season:

Scripture in plain language. We'll use the Common English Bible for our readings — a lively, scholarly translation approved by the Episcopal Church for use in worship and written to be understood by the widest possible range of readers.

Three Scripture readings instead of four. This allows more space for each reading to land, and a little more breathing room in the liturgy overall.

A changed ending. After the table is cleared, we'll pray the postcommunion prayer, sing a closing hymn together, and receive the blessing and dismissal from the altar. The postlude will follow, and clergy will come forward to greet the congregation — giving us a much richer opportunity to welcome people as they leave, and to make sure no one slips out without being seen. You're warmly invited to stay, listen, and linger — or to depart when you need to. Both are a blessing.

We know that change in worship is never neutral. These liturgies are where many of us have encountered God, buried loved ones, baptized children. If something about these changes gives you pause, or if you find yourself with questions or concerns — that matters, and we want to hear from you.

Please share your thoughts using the short form accessible by scanning the QR code. Your responses go directly to Rev. Melissa, Deacons Natalie and James, and Lea, so that we can listen and respond as a team. We'll also be hosting a conversation after the 10am service on June 7th — all are welcome to come.

Envelopes – Due to the high increase of the cost of parish envelopes we have decided to eliminate them. When putting your gift in the offering plate, please write in the memo line where it is to go (pledge, flowers, etc).

Also, you can send your check through your bank to be mailed to the church. Please put your name and envelope # as your account #.

You can also pay through Realm: use the QR code in this worship bulletin at the offertory, or go to our website, click on Donate, and then click Give Now Online.

If you have questions, please contact Donna Lawrence at 508-243-2293 or donnamL21@comcast.net

Thank you for your continuous support to Christ Church.

Evening Women - Our next gathering will be May 6 at 71° West, 114 Water St Plymouth (Old Isaacs) for dinner. The cost is $35 $30 + 5 dollars for a tip please RSVP. I cannot have any walk-ins. Contact me at 508-243-2293 or let me know at church. Thank you, Donna Lawrence.

Please help us with SUNDAY PARKING - On Sunday mornings, please be mindful of one another and leave the main church lot for those who need it most, as accessible parking spots for people with disabilities and families with infants are limited.

Additional parking is always available on Lothrop Street. The Cartmell-Davis lot across from the church on Grant Street is also available to Christ Church worshipers on Sundays. Thank you!

Sharing Our Grief Journey - Meets the 3rd Friday of every month from 1:00 PM – 2:30 PM. Join us Friday, May 15. Meeting in the Hospitality Suite.

Christ Church is offering a series of get togethers designed for anyone who is grieving the loss of a loved one, whether the death is recent or in the past. Participants will have the opportunity to share where they are on their grief journey, receive mutual support, share ways to cope, and may, through prayer and meditation, find new strength and hope to continue on their healing journey. Please join us at any time.

Thank you for supporting the Bishop's Appeal – This year's Appeal highlights key ways we support shepherds, lay and ordained alike, who are strengthening congregational vitality throughout our diocese.

We invite you to place your gift in the Offering today. If you do not have your gift with you, you may bring it next Sunday or mail it back directly to the diocesan office. The appeal newsletter and donation envelope are available at church or by contacting the parish office. Thank you for your generous support.
