

Who Gets In and Why? A Year Inside College Admissions

What are the realities and nuances of present-day college admissions and how might the pandemic impact the college application and campus experience of students presently in high school?

Parish Episcopal School, in concert with Greenhill School, Shelton School, and Ursuline Academy, invite you to hear from higher education expert, Jeffrey Selingo, as he shares his insights on the complex world of college admissions in a Q&A interview with Dave Monaco, Allen Meyer Family Head of School at Parish Episcopal School.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

A Zoom link will be sent to all registered participants the day of the event.

FOR BOOK SALES, CLICK HERE

Jeff Selingo has written about higher education for two decades. He is the author of two New York Times bestsellers, a contributor to The Atlantic and Washington Post, and a special advisor for innovation at Arizona State University. He also co-hosts the podcast, FutureU. His next book, Who Gets In & Why: A Year Inside College Admissions, will be published by Simon & Schuster in September.

He received a bachelor's degree from Ithaca College and a master's degree from the Johns Hopkins University. He is a member of the board of trustees at Ithaca College. He lives with his wife and two daughters in Washington, D.C.

