Simone Biles & Teammates Headline Athleta Presents Gold Over America Tour Landing in Glendale September 22

Fans Favorites Laurie Hernandez, Katelyn Ohashi, Morgan Hurd and Chellsie Memmel will be on Tour in One of the Greatest Line Up of Gymnasts Ever

Fans Can Dance in the Show Finale with all the Gymnasts.

Glendale, AZ (August 20, 2021) – Straight from the world stage, the best gymnasts in the U.S. featuring the most decorated gymnast of all-time, Simone Biles, will headline the Athleta Presents Gold Over America Tour coming to Gila River Arena on September 22. Biles, who medaled with silver for team competition and bronze for the balance beam, will be joined by her teammates Jade Carey who won gold in floor exercise, Jordan Chiles and Grace McCallum who won silver for team competition and MyKayla Skinner who won silver in vault.

Tickets are on sale now a Ticketmaster.com. Please note the Gila River Arena box office remains closed at this time. By purchasing the Gold Squad Premium Upgrade, fans will have an opportunity to dance in the show finale with all the gymnasts.

Produced by MagicSpace Entertainment and promoted by AEG Presents/Concerts West, the show brings all the excitement of a gymnastics competition to hometown arenas nightly as each gymnast performs some of their most famous routines mixed with career highlights, personal videos and social media interactions. The show is a high-energy, gymnastics-meets-pop-concert spectacular that will visit 35 North American cities this fall.

Previously announced participants include 2016 gold and silver medalist in Rio and Dancing With The Stars champion Laurie Hernandez, All-American, NCAA National Champion and viral video sensation Katelyn Ohashi, winner of three gold medals in 2019 and 2020 at the Tokyo World Cup Morgan Hurd, elite gymnast Shilese Jones, former USA Gymnastics Women's Athlete of the Year Chellsie Memmel, 2021 French Olympian Melanie De Jesus dos Santos and 2018 NCAA National Champion from UCLA where she achieved 10 perfect 10's Peng-Peng Lee.

"The Athleta Presents Gold Over America Tour will match athleticism and entertainment," said Biles. "The show embodies the themes of empowerment and togetherness which was on display in Tokyo. Together, all the gymnasts on this tour want to inspire the next generation of women and athletes."

These women are not only athletes at the top-of-their-game, but also the ultimate squad. The show emerges from their personal values of empowerment, friendship, positive body image, mental health awareness, and self-confidence. A crew of gymnastic dancers under eye-popping LED video screens and lights rounds out the experience.

The Athleta Presents Gold Over America Tour kicks off on September 21, 2021 in Tucson with stops along the way in Denver, Los Angeles, Anaheim, Houston, Chicago, Detroit, Columbus, Atlanta, Philadelphia, Newark, and Brooklyn, before concluding in Boston on November 7, 2021.

The creative team includes Director Mark "Swany" Swanhart and Associate Director Louanne Madorma, along with world-renowned gymnastics coach Valorie "Miss Val" Kondos Field, who serves as Supervising Choreographer for the tour. The tour is produced by Lee D. Marshall and executive produced by Mark "Swany" Swanhart, Louanne Madorma, Valorie "Miss Val" Kondos Field, and Guy Phillips.
