From PK's desk

Our beautiful community has been struck with devastation over this past week. Pastor Alan Brown, the new Solomon Lutheran's Pastor lost his house to a fire. The family escaped unharmed and without a scratch. Our natural instinct is to want to help with donating goods, or services to the family. However, sometimes our love can become overwhelming to the family. What we can and should do is be ready for when or if a need becomes apparent, and also be in constant prayer for Pastor Brown's family. As we have spent the past couple weeks studying Jonah's walk with God, we see the need to be submissive to God, and God's control of the world. Our walk with God is not filled with unicorns and rainbows, our lives sometimes are filled with devastation, illness, and above anything sometimes our life just plain stinks. However, the promise that God gives is that we never have to face the wickedness and evil that surrounds us in this world alone. We are first loved by God, and second, loved by those in our life because God loved us to the point of giving us God's only begotten Son to pay for our sins. Hug your family a little tighter be thankful for the blessings you have and know that above anything that happens in our time here on this Earth God loves us all.
