

CJE SeniorLife™ is a nonprofit, diversified and innovative eldercare provider and service organization that serves more than 22,000 older adults and their family members annually throughout metropolitan Chicago and its suburbs. Their mission is to facilitate their independence and enhance the quality of their lives through life enrichment, supportive resources, healthcare, research and education.

Rush University Medical Center

Rush Health and Aging provides health resources, information assistance, counseling, innovative educational programs, and a variety of support groups designed to improve the health and quality of life of older adults and caregivers. Rush Generations, a signature health membership program, offers adults a wealth of resources from a portfolio of workshops, classes and special events, designed to support aging and increase engagement. Membership in Rush Generations is free.

In addition, fast-track access to care and physician appointments is a desirable benefit available to Village members through Rush's Patient Special Services. Just call 800.757.0202.
