

New Yorkers Call for Veto of Assisted Suicide Legislation: Candlelight Vigil Across the State

On December 3rd and 4th, New Yorkers will come together for a candlelight vigil urging Governor Hochul to veto the assisted suicide bill before her. With hot chocolate in hand and powerful messages from community voices, we'll unite to protect those most at risk and remind the Governor that compassion means support, not abandonment.

Three Locations:
Albany, Buffalo, and New York City
