Drop Off Old Electronics for Free at New Recycling Center

Disposing of old computers and other electronics has just become easier for Peachtree Corners' residents and businesses.

Ecycle Atlanta, an electronics recycling business, has just opened. Mayor Mike Mason and Councilmembers Eric Christ and Lorri Christopher were on hand for a ribbon-cutting ceremony to celebrate with owners, Jeff and Lori Shenning.

Located at 3230 Peachtree Corners Circle, Ecycle Atlanta accepts nearly 100 different items. There is no charge for recycling. View the complete list of recycling items here:

The business also offers free hard drive shredding. The only items they are unable to accept are televisions, CRT monitors or household appliances.

Drop off hours are Monday – Saturday from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. For more information call or text 678-324-9760.
