

December 2023

City Council Recognizes Election Poll Workers

During their December 12, 2023, City Council meeting, the City Council recognized the City's 2023 Election Poll Workers and the importance of their service.

A RECOGNITION OF THE CITY OF PEACHTREE CORNERS, GEORGIA RECOGNIZING THE 2023 PEACHTREE CORNERS ELECTIONS POLL WORKERS

WHEREAS, On November 7, 2023, the City of Peachtree Corners held a General Election.

WHEREAS, The City of Peachtree Corners takes great pride in the exceptional volunteers and workers who selflessly dedicate their time to supporting our local and national elections.

WHEREAS, The City recognizes that Election workers and volunteers have a tough job and are critical members of our community. Ensuring that voters were able to cast their ballots safely and successfully in 2023, often working 10-plus hour days to make our elections possible.

WHEREAS, Assisting voters on Election Day is one of the most important responsibilities of our free society. Your courteousness, attentiveness, and commitment during the long day at the polls are critical to the success of conducting the election.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT DECLARED by the Mayor and Council of the City of Peachtree Corners express their heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for the 2023 Poll Workers' unwavering commitment and service. Your cooperation and commitment to early voting and the long day at the poll on election day were vital to making this election cycle run smoothly.

IT IS FURTHER DECLARED that the city commends:

- Julie Sukenik
- Alsie Churchman
- Karen Rogers
- Janice Mahan
- Jenny Shell
- Arthur Quirk
- Tracy Quirk
- Lou Hall
- Mary Beth Stickney

for their hard work and sense of civic pride in ensuring that every Peachtree Corners voter had the opportunity to cast a ballot.

SO DECLARED AND EFFECTIVE, this 12th day of December, 2023.