

WILLIAM DUGAN

William started his ballet training in Tampa, Florida at Next Generation Ballet where he began competing in competitions such as YAGP and Prix de Lausanne. Eventually he won a scholarship to finish his studies at the Hamburg ballet school. After graduating he began dancing professionally with Ballet Dortmund and the Royal Swedish ballet. He has danced various repertoire in his 9-year career and started creating works due to an evening called “Young Choreographers” as a part of the Royal Swedish Ballet.