

GABRIEL LORENA

Choreographer, Dancer and Photographer Gabriel Lorena is originally from São Paulo – BRAZIL. He is currently an artist with Kansas City Ballet, and has also worked with Boston Ballet II and as an apprentice with The Sarasota Ballet. Gabriel Lorena’s approach towards any of his choreographic creations is to build works where other artists can connect with their inner voices, freeing their spirit, provoking a sense of self-discovery and embracing their human nature. He refers to his movement as sign language, blending classical technique with a touch of humanity, combining musicality and imagination reflecting the raw emotions that make us humans.

Mr. Lorena has created several solos for students participating in YAGP in the past, as well as works for Kansas City Ballet’s New Moves, Boston Ballet II, Miami City Ballet School, Moving Arts featuring dancers from Cincinnati Ballet and Kansas City Ballet, and for companies and schools in Brazil. www.gabriellorenachoreography.com