Christ have mercy.
Lord have mercy.*

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Presider O God, the Maker and Redeemer of all believers: Grant to the faithful departed the unsearchable benefits of the passion of your Son; that on the day of his appearing they may be manifested as your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis

from Stopford's Missa Deus Nobiscum

Gloria in excelsis Deo,
Et in terra pas hominibus bonae voluntatis Laudamus te, benedicimus te, adoramus te, glorificamus te! Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam.

*Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise You, we bless You, we worship You, we glorify You! We give thanks to You because of Your great glory.*

Domine Deus

Domine Deus,
Rex coelestis,

*Lord God,
Heavenly King,
God the Father Almighty.*

Domine Fili

Domine Fili unigenite, Jesu Christe.
Domine Deus, Agnus Dei, filius Patris.
Qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostrum.
Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris,
miserere nobis.

*Lord the only begotten Son, Jesus Christ.
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father.
You who take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer.
You who sit at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.*

Quoniam tu solus Sanctus

Quoniam tu solus sanctus.
Tu solus Dominus.
Tu solus latissimus.
Jesu Christe. Cum Sancto Spiritu,
in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.
Gloria in excelsis Deo!

*For only You are holy,
only You are Lord.
Only You most high.
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
Glory to God in the highest!*

THE FIRST READING

Wisdom 3:1-9

A Reading from the Wisdom of Solomon.

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
and no torment will ever touch them.
In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died,
and their departure was thought to be a disaster,
and their going from us to be their destruction;
but they are at peace.
For though in the sight of others they were punished,
their hope is full of immortality.
Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good,
because God tested them and found them worthy of himself;
like gold in the furnace he tried them,
and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them.
In the time of their visitation they will shine forth,

and will run like sparks through the stubble.
 They will govern nations and rule over peoples,
 and the Lord will reign over them forever.
 Those who trust in him will understand truth,
 and the faithful will abide with him in love,
 because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones,
 and he watches over his elect.

Psalm 130
Antiphon, All Sing

BCP p. 784

- ¹ Out of the depths have I called to you, O LORD;
 LORD, hear my voice; *
 let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
- ² If you, LORD, were to note what is done amiss, *
 O LORD, who could stand?
- ³ For there is forgiveness with you; *
 therefore you shall be feared.

Antiphon

- ⁴ I wait for the LORD; my soul waits for him; *
 in his word is my hope.
- ⁵ My soul waits for the LORD,
 more than watchmen for the morning, *
 more than watchmen for the morning.

Antiphon

- ⁶ O Israel, wait for the LORD, *
 for with the LORD there is mercy;
- ⁷ With him there is plenteous redemption, *
 and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

Antiphon

A Reading from Paul's first letter to the Thessalonians.

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

The Lord is my shepherd:
therefore I can lack nothing.
He shall feed me in a green pasture:
and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.
He shall convert my soul:
and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness,
for his Name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff comfort me.
Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them
that trouble me:
thou has anointed my head with oil,
and my cup shall be full.
But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life, and does not come under judgment, but has passed from death to life.

“Very truly, I tell you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself; and he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.”

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE  The people stand.

The Leader and People pray responsively

Intercessor In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Almighty God, who has knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship, the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Grant to your whole Church, in paradise and on earth, your light and peace.

People Amen.

Intercessor Grant that all who have been baptized into Christ’s death and resurrection may die to sin and rise to newness of life, and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass with him to our joyful resurrection.

People Amen.

Intercessor Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that your Holy Spirit may lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days.

People Amen.

Intercessor Grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins, and serve you with a quiet mind.

People Amen.

Intercessor Grant to all who mourn a sure confidence in your care, that, casting all their grief on you, they may know the consolation of your love.

People Amen.

Intercessor Give courage and faith to those who are bereaved, that they may have strength to meet the days ahead in the comfort of a reasonable and holy hope, in the joyful expectation of eternal life with those they love.

People Amen.

Silence

Intercessor Gracious God, we pray especially this day for all those struggling with the living death of addiction, fighting battles both seen and unseen. Grant that all chains be broken, minds and hearts freed, families restored, and lives rebuilt in light and hope.

People Amen.

Intercessor We commend to your care, merciful Lord, all those who have died from fentanyl and other overdoses. Whether they intended that harm upon themselves or not, harm came upon them and those they love. Grant them your mercy, O Lord, and may we grant them our understanding.

People Amen.

Intercessor We remember all those who have taken their own lives, struggling with forces known and unknown. Receive them into the arms of your mercy, where they might at last find peace. We pray for those who struggle with suicidal ideation, that they may find such peace and comfort here in this life.

People Amen.

Intercessor We pray for those who have died in conflict and in war around the world. We remember especially the people of Ukraine, Israel, and Gaza, and we fervently pray for peace and justice on Earth.

People Amen.

Intercessor Help us, we pray, in the midst of things we cannot understand, to believe and trust in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, and the resurrection to life everlasting.

People Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with the following collect

Grant us, with all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, to have our consummation and bliss in your eternal and everlasting glory, and with all your saints, to receive the crown of life which you promise to all who share in the victory of your Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE NECROLOGY

The people stand.

*Parishioners, loved ones, and neighbors who have died and/or been buried from All Saints' in the past year are named.
The Presider offers this concluding collect for the dead*

Father of all, we pray to you for all those whom we love but no see no longer. Grant them eternal rest. Let light perpetual shine upon them. May the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

People Amen.

THE PASSING OF THE PEACE

All stand, as able.

Presider
The peace of the Lord be al - ways with you.

People
And al - so with you.

We greet one another in the name of the Lord.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Blessed Jesu, Lord I pray in thy mercy grant them rest. Lord our God, we pray thee, grant them everlasting rest.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

All stand, as able.

Eucharist Prayer A

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who rose victorious from the dead, and comforts us with the blessed hope of everlasting life. For to your faithful people, O Lord, life is changed, not ended; and when our mortal body lies in death, there is prepared for us a dwelling place eternal in the heavens.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Choir sings:

Sanctus, from Stopford's "God with Us"

Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua.
Hosanna in excelsis.

*Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of Your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.*

Presider Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Presider continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

AT THE FRACTION

Agnus Dei, from Stopford's Missa Deus Nobiscum

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.
Dona nobis pacem.

*Lamb of God, Who takes away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Grant us peace.*

The Presider says the following Invitation

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNION

All baptized Christians, regardless of your denomination or church affiliation, are invited to come forward to receive communion. As you come forward, place your hands out in front of you to receive the Body of Christ in your palm. Gluten-free wafers are available, just whisper to our Presider that this is your wish. Those with mobility issues may also receive communion in your pew rather than needing to come forward. Please indicate to the ushers that this is your wish, and our Presider will bring communion to you.

If you would like to receive the Blood of Christ by intinction (having the bread dipped into the wine, without sipping directly from the cup), point to the chalice. The Presider will dip the wafer into the wine then hold it out to you to take a dry corner in your fingers. Please then step aside to consume the sacrament. If you would just like to receive the bread, cross your palms in front of you to receive the Body of Christ. If you would like to receive from the chalice, you may receive the bread in your palm and consume it, then step toward the chalice to receive the Blood of Christ.

If you are not baptized, or do not wish to receive communion, you are welcome to remain in your pew or come forward for a blessing. Cross your arms over your chest and the Presider will offer a blessing in the name of our Lord. If you are not baptized, but feel drawn to the sacraments and wish to receive, that is a holy longing! Please reach out to Fr. Aidan or our church office to discern whether you wish to be baptized and explore new life in Christ. For any who choose not to receive communion for reasons of comfort or conscience, please know that we are enriched by your prayers and presence with us, and we are delighted you are here today.

COMMUNION MUSIC

Adoration, Theodore Dubois

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

All Almighty God, we thank you that in your great love you have fed us with the spiritual food and drink of the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ, and have given us a foretaste of your heavenly banquet. Grant that this Sacrament may be to us a comfort in affliction, and a pledge of our inheritance in that kingdom where there is no death, neither sorrow nor crying, but the fullness of joy with all your saints; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE COMMENDATION

Presider Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

People You only are immortal, the creator and maker of mankind; and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so did you ordain when you created me, saying, “You are dust, and to dust you shall return.” All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Presider Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting.

Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we have commended your servants. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, sheep of your own fold, lambs of your own flock, sinners of your own redeeming. Keep them in the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen

The Altar party processes to the Columbarium to bless and honor those laid to rest there.

HYMN

Jesus, Son of Mary, Hymnal 1982, 357

Jesus, Son of Mary, fount of life alone, now we hail thee present on thine altar throne. Humbly we adore thee, Lord of endless might, in the mystic symbols veiled from earthly sight.

Think, O Lord, in mercy on the souls of those who, in faith gone from us, now in death repose. Here mid stress and conflict toils can never cease; there, the warfare ended, bid them rest in peace.

Often were they wounded in the deadly strife; heal them, Good Physician, with the balm of life. Every taint of evil, frailty and decay, good and gracious Savior, cleanse and purge away.

Rest eternal grant them, after weary fight; she on them the radiance of thy heavenly light. Lead them onward, upward, to the holy place, where thy saints made perfect gaze upon thy face.

CONSECRATION OF THE NEW COLUMBARIUM

Presider O God, whose blessed Son was laid in a sepulcher in the garden: Bless, we pray, these graves, and grant that those whose bodies will be buried here may dwell with Christ in paradise, and may come to your heavenly kingdom; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Officiant may add addition prayers.

“May He Hold Us,” Christopher Enloe

Choir sings

“May He hold us till the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, ‘till the busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over,
and our work is done.

Then in His mercy may He give us a safe departing and a holy rest, and peace at the last.”

Clergy and Choir exit in silence.
