General Church Privacy Policy

Last updated: February 14, 2024

Introduction

First Baptist Church is committed to protecting your information by ensuring we remain lawful. Below is the Privacy Policy for First Baptist Church. Please take some time to read through this Policy as it outlines how we will use your personal information.

Privacy Policy Consent

This Privacy Policy informs you of how we collect, use, process, and distribute your information. You need to know that we will not use or share your information in any way that is not specified within this Privacy Policy.

This policy only applies to information we collect from members and visitors offline. This policy does not apply to information collected by First Baptist Church via www.fbcpf.org, through any other means, or from any third party.

We reserve the right to change or modify this privacy policy in any way at any time. Please read this Privacy Policy to understand how your information may be obtained and used. This Privacy Policy governs any content you provide to us. By turning in Connect Cards, personal checks, or other media with your personal information, whether you have read this Privacy Policy or not, you are fully consenting to this Privacy Policy.

Information We May Collect

Our goal in collecting your information is to improve your experience at First Baptist Church. Here are the pieces of information that we may collect.

1) A name and contact information enabling us to contact you - providing an email address or phone number on a Connect Card or sign-up sheet equates to consent.
2) Important dates that you provide to us (birthday, baptism, wedding)
3) The family information you provided us when joining the congregation at First Baptist Church.

Any information you voluntarily provide equates to information you are giving us consent to use.

How Personal Information is Collected

1) Donating to First Baptist Church
2) Applying to work with First Baptist Church
3) Contacting us using email, phone, or any other means
4) Completing Connect Cards or other information sheets

What Happens with the Information We Collect

1) It may be used to contact you
    - For follow-up purposes
    - For promotional purposes
    - Informational updates
2) It may be used during targeted social media.
    - There are times that First Baptist Church may use social media services such as Facebook for targeted promotional purposes. We pay for ads that use our selected criteria to reach a targeted audience with news or information.

Storage and Handling of Personal Information

Personal Information obtained by First Baptist Church is stored internally or through a data management system. We value your safety, so your Personal Information will only be accessed by people responsible for gathering, managing, or storing it or who have a legitimate need to access it. (i.e., our hosting provider, newsletter provider, payment processors, or team members).

How You Can Access, Update, or Delete Your Personal Data

You have the right to:

1) Request information regarding how your data is used and request a copy of what information we use.
2) Restrict processing if you think the information is inaccurate, unlawful, or unnecessary.
3) Be forgotten from our systems, meaning we will erase your personal information from our databases. (You have the “right to be forgotten”).
4) Change your preference regarding whether you consent to our use of your information.
5) Complain if it is felt that any of your information has been unlawfully used.
6) Object to our use of your information.
7) Not be subject to an automated decision based solely on automatic processing, including profiling, which legally or significantly affects you.

Changes To This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy at any time. Please review it frequently.
