Alentado Training Consultants, LLC.

History: Jose Alentado was a veteran of the Tampa and Gainesville Police Departments. After concluding his law enforcement career, he instructed at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center and rose to become the program manager of the Law Enforcement Spanish Training Programs. He received nine awards from FLETC for course development and deliveries during his tenure there. Jose was an instructor of law enforcement Spanish since 1989 throughout the United States. Unfortunately, Jose is no longer with us. To keep his work alive, his daughter Andrea Alentado Hague has taken ownership, only changing the company name to honor her father. Alentado Training Consultants, LLC is employing the same methodologies, materials, and only the best instructors, hand-picked from around the United States, that have trained with Jose for decades.
