

Alentado Training Consultants, LLC. presents:

3 Day Level I Officer Survival & Communication Spanish

Hosted by:

PATC

Class held at :

University of South Carolina Police Department
1415 Henderson St, Columbia , SC 29135

July 22-24, 2019

8a-5pm

This course is designed to benefit law enforcement officers, regardless of their knowledge of the Spanish Language. It is intended to provide the students with the skills to:

- Make arrests and control their surroundings to enhance officer safety
- Navigate legal and cultural Issues pertaining to the language
- Effectively gather accurate biographical information
- Understand the construction of Latino names
- Use interview control to effectively interact with Spanish speakers
- Be familiar with street slang, gang slang, drug and weapons terms for threat recognition
- Hands-on practical exercises

This is accomplished through lecture, intensive and repetitive drills, utilization of contextual vocabulary, real world examples and case studies. These classes are highly interactive, to increase retention.

The students will be introduced to court cases resulting from language issues, subtle differences in word definitions that could negatively impact their arrests and interviews, and simple, yet powerful ways to control conversations.

Students will also be taught key phrases and interview-control methods to adapt to almost any situation, obtaining valuable information from Spanish speakers, over and above the limitations of their Spanish vocabularies.

All of our instructors are current or past law enforcement officers to lend credibility to the program and audience. All students will receive a law enforcement specific book, and access to 3rd party apps for practice flip cards and audio recordings

Space is limited so register now! www.AilentadoTC.com/courses/calendar or to register

Alentado Training Consultants, LLC.

History: Jose Alentado was a veteran of the Tampa and Gainesville Police Departments. After concluding his law enforcement career, he instructed at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center and rose to become the program manager of the Law Enforcement Spanish Training Programs. He received nine awards from FLETC for course development and deliveries during his tenure there. Jose was an instructor of law enforcement Spanish since 1989 throughout the United States. Unfortunately, Jose is no longer with us. To keep his work alive, his daughter Andrea Alentado Hague has taken ownership, only changing the company name to honor her father. Alentado Training Consultants, LLC is employing the same methodologies, materials, and only the best instructors, hand-picked from around the United States, that have trained with Jose for decades.

Kevan Dugan

Kevan retired in 2011 after more than 28 years with the Pennsylvania State Police, retiring as Division Director of the Bureau of Emergency and Special Operations. His varied assignments included patrol, criminal investigations, undercover narcotics and SWAT. He served six years as a board member for the National Tactical Officers Association and is a graduate of the FBINAA, Session 213. After retirement he worked as the Director of Sales in Mexico for Point Blank Body Armor. He was a Spanish instructor for his department and acted as interpreter on homicide, aggravated assault, theft, drug and internal investigations, as well as translating department documents into Spanish. For the NTOA, he taught SWAT Command Courses in Spanish in South America.

Certified with PITC as a Spanish Instructor in 2001, he has taught in Pennsylvania, New York, Arizona, Florida, Tennessee, Wyoming, Nevada, Idaho, Indiana and U.S. Virgin Islands.
