This year's Gala celebrates over 40 years of "Keeping Claremont's History Alive". Please join us for an elegant evening at the historic Padua Hills Theatre with libations and passed hors d'oeuvres, a delicious 3-course served dinner, live music, a live and silent auction featuring artwork by some of Claremont's most renowned artists, and much more! It will be an evening to remember, we hope to see you there!

We have always enjoyed great community support for this fundraising event and hope you will become part of the fun by donating an item for the auction. The value of your donation is tax-deductible. In addition, your contribution will be gratefully acknowledged in the event program.

Your auction item, together with the enclosed donation form, can be dropped off at our office at Garner House in Memorial Park; or if you prefer, we will be glad to arrange to pick it up. The deadline for receipt of all auction items is Monday, April 30, 2018.

David Shearer
Executive Director

Your support will help continue our mission to advance, preserve and celebrate Claremont's historic architectural, natural and cultural resources. Claremont Heritage makes a difference in our community and serves more 3,000 people each year through our tours, educational programs, publications and archives.
