

WELCOME TO WAYSIDE CHURCH!

If you're joining us at Wayside for the first time today, welcome! Please take a moment to fill out our "Let's Connect" card located in your pews, or on the podium, near the entrance door. After completing the card, please place it in the collection basket passed around during the service.

Please notify our office if you or a family member are in the hospital, so that we may arrange a visit and offer prayers.

Giving has never been easier! Click this QR Code or see our weekly Waysider available every Friday, or on our FB Page and find ways to support Wayside through donations, pay your Per Capita, assist families with our Family Relief Fund, or honor loved ones by making Memorial donations. If you're not signed up to receive the Friday email, let us know at 716-983-3888.

Welcome to Wayside Rev. Reece!

The Rev. Reece Nolt is a pulpit less pastor who currently tends to a flower farm in Western New York called Bread & Dahlias. The farm rejects the myth of scarcity and strives to grow and generously offer fresh flowers to all who seek the balm of a bouquet. Reece earned their BA in photography and liberal arts in 2011 from Eastern Mennonite University, earned their Master's of Divinity from Eastern Mennonite Seminary in 2019 and was ordained in 2021. Reece's current ministry focus is Bread & Dahlias and serving on the leadership team for a new 1001 worshipping community called The Circle HBG. Beyond the pulpit you can find Reece tending the flower beds, working on renovating their old farm house, reading fiction and playing Wingspan, their favorite board game.
