

Sharon Harris, M.S., is a retired special education teacher and behavioral consultant. She worked in K-12 public education for 43 years, mostly in the field of learning disabilities, and at the college level for several years after retiring, teaching future teachers about special education.

Sharon has served on the Board of LDA of Indiana in various capacities since the year 2000 when she began as Secretary and later as President and then Treasurer. Since retiring she has begun writing children's books and published her first in 2016. She lives in Noblesville with her husband and their Brittany Spaniel, Gracie. She has two grown children and one grandson.