

Dr. Bobbie Weikle, (ED.D) is a lifelong educator. Specializing in Early Childhood/Special Education and Assistive Technology. she has spent over 40 years as a teacher, consultant, college professor, and researcher working to improve the education and lives of people with disabilities. She has served as the President of the Fort Wayne Chapter of Learning Disabilities Association of Indiana, served 6 years as the State Conference Chair for the LDA of Indiana.

Currently, she serves on the Professional Advisory Board for the LDA of Indiana, writing articles for the newsletter and acting as an advocate for the organization. She continues to do research and do public speaking on issues related to learning, learning disabilities/attention deficit disorder and educating children who learn differently. She makes her home in Fort Wayne , Indiana .