

DOCS IN PROGRESS

CREATING COMMUNITY THROUGH DOCUMENTARY

TEEN SUMMER FILMMAKING WORKSHOPS

1 WEEK (Grades 7-8)

In this interactive session, teens hone camera and editing skills and work with archival materials to craft an original personal documentary.

July 13th-July 17th | 9:30am-4pm

1 WEEK (Grades 4-6)

Students will use NASA imagery, along with footage they capture, to create a personal short film about their connection to outer space and the world around them.

July 20th-24th | 9:30am-4pm

1 WEEK (Ages 13-17)

This one-week experience delves into the craft of documentary storytelling. Students work in teams to create films highlighting the community.

July 27th-31st | 9:30am-4pm

1 WEEK (Ages 13-17)

A one-week creative sprint for teens to explore hands-on filmmaking and produce engaging films focused on local organizations.

August 3th-7th | 9:30am-4pm

SIGN UP NOW!

docsinprogress.org

bit.ly/4vAcXTy