

NATIONAL BLACK PRESBYTERIAN CAUCUS PITTSBURGH CHAPTER

Congratulations to the 2022 Coleman-Patrick Scholarship Recipients!

The Robert Coleman-Dr. Leroy Patrick Scholarship is annually awarded to undergraduate students of color who are recommended by their church pastor or the director of a validated mission agency of Pittsburgh Presbytery.

In 2022, the awards were funded by the congregations of Pittsburgh Presbytery through the Christmas Joy Offering in addition to the fundraising programs of the National Black Presbyterian Caucus, Pittsburgh Chapter (NBPC). The students were awarded a sum totaling more than $2,700.

The two recipients are: Mekkah Nared, attending Robert Morris University; and Kiara Nicole Rockymore, attending Seton Hill University.

Members of the Pittsburgh NBPC express our thanks-for-giving to all who contributed to the scholarship in support of this ministry. We will continue to encourage the importance of post-secondary education among the youth in our communities. Please pray for our students as they work toward scholastic achievement. Congratulations to the 2022 Coleman-Patrick Scholarship Recipients!

Ruling Elder, Lenore Williams, moderator
NBPC Pittsburgh Chapter Coleman and Patrick Committee:
Elder, Alan Perry, Chairman
Elder, Blanche Bennett
Elder, Judy Jerry
Elder, Mary Evans
Elder, Harriette McCray