IAWM Spring Retreat

April 20-21, 2023

This year's theme is "Spiritual Practices for the New Normal in which We are Living." To say that times have changed is an understatement! We are living into a new normal and many of us are trying so hard just to tread water, that we forget that God is buoying us up. This retreat will be just that, a retreat from the strains and stresses of life and an opportunity to reconnect with ourselves and with God. There will be time for individual and group reflection and opportunities to participate in spiritual practices that have sustained people down through the ages. Our retreat will be lead by The Rev. Meredith Hutchison, an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ with 41 years of experience in ministry. Meredith has offered workshops on caring for the caregiver as well as provides individual direction in times of grief. She is affiliated with the West Virginia Institute for Spirituality. We will meet at Antiochian Village, in the beautiful Laurel Highlands of southwestern Pennsylvania. Overnight lodging and three meals are provided. Cost is $200. Contact Rev. Ann Morris, foxmorris@verizon.com or 412-979-8422. For more information about International Association of Women Ministers, go to <https://womenministers.org/>
