

We're Hiring!

CUSTOMER HOSTS

JOIN OUR ASSET PROTECTION
TEAM!

Interested in applying or simply have questions?

Contact Us!

Loriann: Asset Protection Manager

Tina: Personnel Manager

(802) 229-7792

Store #2682 Berlin, VT

WHAT MAKES A GREAT CUSTOMER HOST?

A great Customer Host is professional, friendly and ready to provide excellent customer service. Customer Hosts aren't security guards, so they must possess an outgoing personality that customers will appreciate.

Customer Hosts are required to be observant and diligent. They will approach customers with merchandise for return, so it can be tagged and check the receipts of customers with large, high-value, un-bagged merchandise.

CUSTOMER HOST RESPONSIBILITIES

Greeting and thanking our customers

Serving as a visible deterrent to theft

Identifying and reporting shrink and other incidents

Recording losses and recoveries for research

Keeping the entrances safe and clean

Marking items for return or exchange

Checking receipts when appropriate

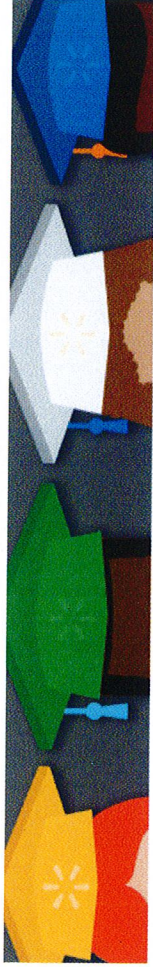

Responding to EAS alarms

Customer Host Hours Medium to High Risk Stores

grocery	10AM to 8PM	gen mds	10AM to 8PM	garden	10AM to 7PM
---------	-------------	---------	-------------	--------	-------------

Customer Host Starting Rate $ 12.00 per hour

Schedules may be adjusted ±2 hours to account for heavier customer traffic.

GUILDED EDUCATION

Benefits Include:

- You can attain a degree in Business Management or Supply Chain Management at select schools (University of Florida, Brandman University and Bellevue University) for just $1 per day
- Walmart will take care of the remaining costs to cover tuition, books and other fees
- You can receive college credit for Academy training
- Education coaches will help you map your personalized learning path
- Walmart covers 100% of the cost of earning a GED or a high school diploma for associates, spouses and eligible family members*

