Weekly Summary

Compared to last week's market, all classes of the feeder steers and heifer average prices finished firm to $3 higher. Both the slaughter cows and slaughter bulls continue to feel seasonal pressure and backed up about $2.

Again, we are continuing to witness an unsettled futures board as cattle futures see "limit up" closings one day and the next day "limit down". This uneasiness continues to reflect certain media statements that are totally moving the board like a pendulum. The fact remains the fundamentals continue to remain strong for the feeder calf prices.

COMMENTS

Very good market today on the calf alley. Most classes of calves would be 8 to 12 higher than last week. Packer cows would be a few dollars cheaper and stock cows would show to be steady with limited quality and quantity available today. A little stability in the CME & weather would be a game changer for all. We appreciate the crew, consignors and buyers! See yall next Wednesday!

No sale November 26 for Thanksgiving!

State of the current market:

Just a few classes today showed any improvement in prices. Plainer cattle still taking a strong hit backwards. Good quality cattle still holding their own.

Watch for our Pre-con calf sale Tuesday Nov. 25 and our annual Chamber Bull and Replacement Heifer Sale Dec. 2.

Thanks for your business!
