Bellringers
1/27/2021

Cyndi Leissenar is ringing the bell for the Salem Police Foundation who incites you to attend the tenth annual Breakfast with the Chief on Thursday, February 18th at 8 am, brought to you by Salem Health. You will hear from our new Police Chief Trevor Womack, get an inside peek of our new police station, and learn what the Salem Police Foundation is doing to support our officers. This year's event has gone virtual and reservations are required in advance to receive your unique program link. Sponsorships are still available, and all funds raised during the event will go towards a special effort detailed in the program, training, and equipment supporting our Salem Police officers. Learn more and register at Salem Police Foundation.org.

John McCulley is ringing the bell to honor and remember two Hall of Fame baseball players who died this past week, Don Sutton and Hank Aaron.

Rus McCracken is ringing the bell for $56 – the cost of his missed January RSC lunches.

Chane Griggs is ringing the bell for Emily Swart who recently joined Marion Polk Food Share.

Rick Gaupo is ringing the bell for today's speaker, Ryan Collier, in appreciation of the estate planning education Ryan has shared with MPFS and its supporters.

Linda Bednarz is ringing the bell for the Salem Leadership Foundation's Rainfest golf event.

Jenn Columbus is ringing the bell for Ryan Collier and Rick Gaupo who are both supportive of the Oregon Community Foundation's activities.
