"In an ever-changing society and security world, I'm always excited to see and study the newest products entered in our New Product of the Year contest, each year," said Ralph C. Jensen, editor in chief of Security Today magazine. "I'm very pleased that many manufacturers take the time to share with us and our readers the products they have designed and brought to fruition. Our world needs the technology and benefits from those people who are ever thinking about new ways to secure the world. There has never been a time in the history of mankind when security efforts are more needed than they are today."

Information about the 2020 Security Today New Product of the Year awards will be available at securitytoday.com in the spring of 2020.
