Moving Beyond Stranger Danger: Personal Safety Conversations for Today's Youth

Presented by King County Sexual Assault Resource Center Prevention Specialists

Monday,
December 8
6:30–8:00pm
MI Community & Event Center

You'll learn:

- What "stranger danger" misses in today's context
- How youth are navigating safety online and offline
- Tools and strategies to help families talk about boundaries, consent, and safety
- Ways to support your child's confidence and decision-making

THESE CONVERSATIONS AREN'T ALWAYS EASY — BUT THEY'RE ESSENTIAL.

Join us to gain practical tips and helpful resources for having meaningful, informed, age-appropriate conversations about personal safety with your child.

This presentation is designed for parents and caregivers of youth in kindergarten through high school.
