VOLUNTEER ATTORNEYS NEEDED FOR 2027

Connecticut Bar Association | Lawyers in Libraries Program

Make a difference in your community!

The Connecticut Bar Association (CBA) is seeking volunteer attorneys for its 2027 Lawyers in Libraries Program!

This rewarding opportunity allows attorneys to give back to their communities by providing brief legal guidance to individuals who may otherwise have difficulty accessing legal assistance.

What to Expect

- Volunteer sessions are held on scheduled weekday evenings and last approximately two hours.
- Each client receives approximately 20–30 minutes of assistance from a volunteer attorney.
- Client information is often provided in advance to allow attorneys to conduct conflict checks.
- The CBA provides malpractice insurance coverage for volunteer attorneys during program sessions.

Areas of Law Commonly Requested

Landlord/Tenant • Immigration • Family Law • Personal Injury • Wills and Estate Planning

Volunteer Locations

Greatest need: UConn Law Library, Berlin, Middletown, New Britain, Danbury, and West Hartford.

Additional locations: Stamford, Bridgeport, Norwalk, New Milford, New London, and Norwich.
