2018-2019 Season Update

Lausanne, Switzerland, March 24, 2019 - The 2018- 2019 FIVB Beach Volleyball World Tour played its 15th men's event this past weekend with the men's-only two-star Anchor Beach Volleyball Carnival in Siem Reap, Cambodia. The women, who were idle for the second straight week, have played twelve events. In an all-European Final Four, Austria's Christoph Dressler/Alexander Huber recovered from a first set loss to each capture their first FIVB World Tour titles by defeating Maxim Sivolap/Artem Yarzutkin of Russia, 16-21, 21-13, and 15-13 in 45 minutes for the gold medal. Yves Haussener/Quintin Metral of Switzerland captured the bronze over Peter Eglseer/Florian Schnetzer of Austria, 18-21, 21-10, and 15-12 in 53 minutes. Next week the FIVB 2018-2019 tour takes its only off week until mid-June, then both genders are back in action in April with a women's-only one-star in Battambang, Cambodia from April 4-7, a double-gender one-star in Satun, Thailand from April 8-11, a double-gender one-star in Langkawi, Malaysia from April 11-14, a double-gender one-star in Goteborg, Sweden from April 18-21, and a four-star event in Xiamen, China from April 24-28.

2018-2019 FIVB Season Men's & Women's Highlights

The 2018-2019 FIVB Beach Volleyball World Tour calendar features US$7.40 million in prize money, with two five-star events, both are Major Series, twelve four-star events, five three-star events, eight two-star events, and 26 one-star events, as well as the FIVB Beach Volleyball World Championships and the World Tour Finals. One age-group FIVB World Championships, for players under the age of 21, will also be played and an Olympic Qualification Tournament in September. The 2018-2019 FIVB World Tour began in August of 2018 and will conclude in September 2019. This year marks the 33rd anniversary of the first FIVB beach volleyball event held February 17-22, 1987 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The gold medal was won by USA's Sinjin Smith/Randy Stoklos. The men's World Tour began in 1989, the women's in 1992. Smith/Stoklos were the champions of the inaugural season in 1989-90.

- The international beach volleyball circuit visits 55 sites in 35 countries over a thirteen-month period spanning from August 2018 to September 2019.
- The 2018-2019 FIVB Beach Volleyball World Tour calendar features 46 men's and 48 women's events within all five confederations (African, Asian, European, North American, and South American), offering US$7.40 million in prize money.
- Both five-star events, the FIVB World Championships and the World Tour Finals are for both genders. The combined purse for the five-star events and World Tour Finals will be $600,000, and the total purse will be $1,000,000 for the FIVB World Championships.
- Both five-star events are Beach Major Series events, returning to their 2018 sites in Switzerland (Gstaad), and Austria (Vienna).
- The showcase events on the 2018-2019 FIVB World Tour is the FIVB Beach Volleyball World Championships in Hamburg, Germany from June 28-July 7 and the World Tour Finals in Rome, Italy from September 4-8.
- Eleven of the twelve four-star events are for both genders, while the event in Doha, Qatar is for men only. The double-gender events are in China (Yangzhou, Xiamen, and Jinjiang), the United States (Las Vegas), Netherlands (The Hague), Brazil (Itapema), Czech Republic (Ostrava), Poland (Warsaw), Portugal (Espinho), Japan (Tokyo), and Russia (Moscow). The purse for the four-star events is $150,000 per gender.
- Four of the five three-star events are for both genders with a purse of $75,000 per gender. The events for both genders are in China (Qinzhou), Australia (Sydney), Malaysia (Kuala Lumpur), and Canada (Edmonton). The event in Mexico (Chetumal) was for women only.
- Only two of the eight two-star events are for both genders with a purse of $25,000 per gender. The double-gender events are in Turkey (Aydin) and China (Qidong). Zhongwei, China, Phnom Penh, Cambodia, Nanjing, China and Nantong, China are holding women's-only events. The event in Siem Reap, Cambodia is for men only.
- 14 of the 26 one-star events are for both genders with a purse of $5,000 per gender. Events played in conjunction with the CEV will be paid in Euros. The double-gender events are in Hungary (Siofok), France (Montpellier), Slovenia (Ljubljana in November 2018 and August 2019), India (Visakhapatnam), Thailand (Satun), Malaysia (Langkawi), Sweden (Gothenburg), Philippines (Manila), Austria (Baden), Greece (Ios), Liechtenstein (Vaduz), Brazil (Miguel Pereira), Belgium (Knokke-Heist), and Rwanda (Rubawu). The single-gender events for men are in Iran (Bandar Torkaman, Babolsar, and Bandar Anzali), Cambodia (Kampong Speu), Italy (Pinarella di Cervia), Poland (Malbork), and Oman (Salalah). The women's-only events are in Cambodia (Battambang), Vietnam (Tuan Chau Island) Korea (Daegu and Ulsan), and Italy (Alba Adriatica).
- The 2018-2019 FIVB Beach Volleyball calendar also includes the FIVB Age Group World Championships for players under the age of 21 in Thailand (Samila Beach) from June 19-23 and an Olympic Qualification Tournament in a city to be determined in China from September 18-22. FIVB age-group worlds for U21 and U19 have been held for over a decade, once for U17 and two times for U23.
- Hungary opened the 2018-2019 FIVB World Tour calendar for the first time in the 33-year history of the tour with the double-gender FIVB Siofok One Star from August 23-26, 2018. The first five-star event will be in Switzerland (Gstaad) from July 9-14, 2019. China contested the first four-star event (Yangzhou) from October 10-14, 2018, the first three-star event (Qinzhou) from September 30-October 4, 2018, and the first two-star (Zhongwei) from September 14-16, 2018. The first one-star event was held in Hungary (Siofok) on August 23-26, 2018.
