

Abou El-Kassim Britel – Fatima Boudchar — Khaled El-Masri

Binyam Mohamed – Saifullah Paracha – Mohamed Bashmilah

Six of 49 people transported to CIA torture sites by Aero Contractors planes like this one based at two North Carolina airports.

For their stories and photo credits see Torture Flights: North Carolina's Role in the CIA Rendition and Torture Program at www.nctorturereport.org

Faith and Conscience Convocation: A Call for Accountability for Torture

Sunday, April 28, 2019 2-5 PM

The Blue Ridge Room South (Room 203)

University of North Carolina-Asheville's Highsmith Student Union

Featured Speakers and Participant Discussions

Today's Context: Torture takes Many Forms

Rev. Ron Stief, Executive Director of the National Religious Campaign Against Torture

The NC Commission of Inquiry on Torture Report's Key Findings

Dr. Christina Cowger, Founder NC Stop Torture Now and Board Member of NCCIT

The Ineffectiveness of the Use of Torture in Interrogations

Col. Larry Wilkerson, Retired U.S. Army, former Chief-of -Staff for Sec. of State Colin Powell

Rendition and Torture: Is there a Legal Basis to Hold Officials Responsible?

Prof. David M. Crane, Chief Prosecutor, Special Court for Sierra Leone War Crimes Tribunal

Followed by Action Planning: Who Should Be Held Accountable and How?

Convening Organizations

NC Council of Churches ♦ NC Stop Torture Now ♦ ACLU of North Carolina ♦ NC Commission of Inquiry on Torture ♦ Carolina Jews for Justice

For registration and information contact:

Para Drake, Project Coordinator of NCCC No Torture,

919-828-6501 or para@nccouncilofchurches.org