

Our Speaker is Judith Greenberg

“Cypora’s Echo” - the story of family members during World War II in Poland.

The Descendants' Forum of Greater Phoenix hosts a gathering of children (2G) and grandchildren (3G) of Holocaust survivors who wish to share their interest in Holocaust issues. All are welcome. Meetings are free.

WHEN:	Our discussion is on Thursday, January 27, 2022
TIME:	6:00 PM– 7:00 PM
WHERE:	Via Zoom. You will receive a link before the scheduled time.
TOPIC:	Judith Greenberg holds a Ph.D. in Comparative Literature from Yale University and had been writing and teaching about trauma and literature for years before she discovered the history of the last days of the Jews of Siedlce, Poland recorded by her own relative, Cypora Jablon Zonszajn. Cypora understood that the only chance for her baby daughter, Rachel, lay outside the ghetto. Cypora gave Rachel to her Catholic friends from childhood. Cypora’s friends raised Rachel and buried their friend’s written pages, which are now held at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum.
RSVP:	RESERVATIONS ARE A MUST so we can add you to the participant list . RSVP to Elaine Goldenthal elainegoldenthal@gmail.com Or phone 480.330.1547.

