THE MASS

We gather together to pray and celebrate Jesus' sacrifice and love for us. We invite you to join us in prayer. These pages will take you through the Mass, whether you are new to our community, our Faith, or just want to participate more fully. The italicized sections explain posture, plain text is the priest's or leader's part, and bold text denotes our response as the gathered Body of Christ.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

During this part of the Mass, we hear God's Word proclaimed. We listen to preaching, which makes Scripture come alive again today, and we express our Catholic faith.

INTRODUCTORY RITE

Please stand for the entrance and opening hymn.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The grace of our Lord...be with you all.

And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL RITE

Brothers and sisters...celebrate the sacred mysteries

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask the blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Repeat after the priest:

Lord Have Mercy. Christ have mercy. Lord Have Mercy.

OR Kyrie, eleison. Christe, eleison. Kyrie, eleison.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You, we bless You, we adore You, we glorify You, we give You thanks for Your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For You alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READINGS FROM SCRIPTURE (see page 4)

Please sit to receive the Word of God.

First Reading...The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: God, in Your goodness, You have made a home for the poor.

Second Reading...The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please stand to receive the Gospel.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke. Glory to You, O Lord.

...The word of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

Please sit as we listen to a reflection from the clergy.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please stand as we proclaim the creed together.

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, *and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. *(please bow during this profession) For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER

Please stand as we pray for our community, united with the entire Body of Christ.

After each intention, reply: Make us humble like You.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

In this part of the Mass, we re-experience Jesus' sacrifice. We acknowledge that He is present in the consecrated Bread and Wine—Communion. We pray together and take what we have received in Mass home and into the world.

THE OFFERTORY

During this time, as we bring up the bread and wine, we also offer our prayers, gifts, and even ourselves to be placed before God and be transformed.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

Blessed are you, Lord... the bread of life.

Blessed be God forever.

Blessed are you, Lord... become our spiritual drink.

Blessed be God forever.

Pray...to God, the almighty Father.

Please stand and reply:

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of His name, for our good and the good of all His holy Church.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right and just.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel in reverence for Christ coming in His Eucharist.

...The mystery of faith...

We proclaim Your Death, O Lord, and profess Your resurrection until You come again.

OR

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim Your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

OR

Save us, Savior of the world, for by Your Cross and Resurrection You have set us free.

THE GREAT AMEN

Amen.

COMMUNION RITE

Please stand as we pray together

THE LORD'S PRAYER

At the Savior's command... we dare to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Deliver us, Lord ... Jesus Christ.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever.

THE SIGN OF PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And with your spirit.

Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

At this time we exchange a sign of sharing God's peace by offering a handshake, hug, or similar gesture with those around us.

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. x2

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Please kneel as we prepare to receive the Body of Christ.

Behold the Lamb of God...the supper of the Lamb.

Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION

Christ's body and blood are truly, fully present as He offers Himself to us in Communion. Catholics prepared to receive the Eucharist approach the minister as the ushers guide you. Non-Catholics or those choosing to abstain from Communion are welcome to come forward for a blessing (please indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest) or may remain in the pews to pray.

CONCLUDING BLESSING

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Go in peace. Thanks be to God.

**The Responsorial Psalm may vary*

WELCOME We are so glad that you are here with us! At Saint Brigid Parish, we join together in community to encounter and love Jesus and one another, so we can go out and be disciples who serve the world. Come be a part of the mission with us! Whether you're a long-time parishioner, vacationer, church shopper, or making your way back to practicing your faith, there is always a place for you here. We hope that by gathering to pray, grow, and love, we all can learn to live like Jesus and become who we are called to be.

CLERGY CORNER Deacon Chris Hulburt

Among the many great contributions of the Catholic Church to the development of the modern world is its collection of papal encyclicals and apostolic exhortations on issues of social justice. The Church does not shy away from the prophetic application of its theology to the very practical needs and political circumstances of the world in which we live.

Labor Day is an excellent example. In the Industrial Revolution of the late 19th century, labor conditions were oppressive. Men, women, and children were working in unsafe conditions, and receiving near slave wages as unrestrained capitalists grew ever more wealthy. In 1891, Pope Leo XIII directly addressed the injustice and inhumanity of these conditions in Rerum Novarum: On the Condition of Labor. In a remarkably evenhanded way, the pope criticized both runaway capitalism—which exploits individual workers and releases owners from social and moral constraints, and socialism—which subordinates individual liberty to social well-being, without respect for human rights and religious welfare.

Pope Leo insisted that consideration of moral law must be part of every economic system and every economic transaction. In short, we must be clear that work is for the benefit of humans, not that humans are for the benefit of work. A year after Rerum Novarum, American workers marched in protest in New York City (what some historians refer to as the first unofficial Labor Day). Two years later, in 1894, President Grover Cleveland made the holiday official—a day of rest for workers. May our celebration of Labor Day always remind us of the inherent dignity that all people enjoy, everyone made in the image and likeness of God.

DID YOU KNOW?

PRAYER FOR THE DIGNITY OF WORK AND THE RIGHTS OF WORKERS

Lord God, Master of the Vineyard, how wonderful that You have invited us who labor by the sweat of our brow to be workers in the vineyard and assist Your work to shape the world around us.

As we seek to respond to this call, make us attentive to those who seek work but cannot find it. Help us listen to the struggles of those who work hard to provide for their families but still have trouble making ends meet.

Open our eyes to the struggles of those exploited and help us speak for just wages and safe conditions, the freedom to organize, and time for renewal.

For work was made for humankind and not humankind for work. Let it not be a vehicle for exploitation but a radiant expression of our human dignity.

Give all who labor listening hearts that we may pause from our work to receive Your gift of rest. Fill us with Your Holy Spirit that You might work through us to let Your justice reign.

Amen.

LABOR DAY

For many, the Labor Day holiday is a long weekend that marks the end of summer. However, Labor Day was created in the late 1800s to show solidarity of labor unions and pay tribute to working men and women.

We asked people from St. B's how they live their faith at work. See what a few of them had to say ...

Through my parenting ... we talk about God, pray, and bring our kids to Church. I love the quote by Mother Teresa: "What can you do to promote world peace? Go home and love your family!" When I feel my devotion to my faith lacking, I try and remind myself that I can demonstrate faith by being the best mom I can. —Kelly (Mom)

I am able to bring God to work with me by opening myself to be a vessel of His service, love, and compassion to my patients. I can humbly say yes to any situation I encounter because of Him. —Paige (Pediatric Oncology Nurse)

I see work as something that God has given to me, and that Christ Himself did, and so I take pride in my work and do my best. —George (Financial Analyst)

I work in Ocean Beach and it can be challenging at times; in those times I pray and try hard to treat them as Jesus would. —Rodger (Lifeguard)

I actively discuss God during patient encounters, and advise them to keep their faith and to rely on God. Pray with patients and their families to regain health, and/or accept their declining health. Pray that they can rest in our Savior's arms, find comfort and peace. —Serena (Family Nurse Practitioner)

I devote my morning walk from the employee parking lot to prayer. I've found that the beautiful and natural setting of the Zoo before operating hours helps me to really concentrate on my conversation with God. Our plant and animal collection at the Zoo are His children and I definitely feel His presence through them when I start my day off in prayer ... it keeps my faith alive. —Grant (Construction Financial Analyst)

At corporate jobs, I'd wear my crucifix daily, and I had a Marian icon and a small crucifix on my desk. This prompted coworkers to ask me about God, in restrooms, at lunch ... even a mother and her daughter, separately, at different workplaces (we only made the connection years later). —Jeannie (Retirement Education Specialist)

I have recently started to bring my faith to work by making a point to say that I went to Mass at Saint Brigid when people ask about my weekend. It's very subtle, but it has opened the door for conversations! —David (Navy Helicopter Pilot)
