August 15 – Remember to wear your masks while inside the buildings at FPC.

Faith Formation Classes

Children's Class:

If you would like to receive the weekly parents' email from Lenore, sign up here.

Our children's class is held on Sunday mornings. If your child(ren) would like to attend in person, please join us on the second floor of the Christian education building at 10:00 a.m. To join via Zoom, the link is here. All ages welcome!

Faith and Community Class:

The Faith & Community class is currently watching Henry Louis Gates Jr.'s documentary, The Black Church: This Is Our Story, This Is Our Song. Each week, we watch 30 minutes together over Zoom and then have a discussion. Here is the link to join this class: https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84295440184.

Lectionary Class:

Join us each Sunday for discussion, either online via Zoom or in person in the East Parlor (the Robert Daye Meeting Room). The class will begin at 9:45 a.m., preceded at 9:30 by sharing of news and concerns, and will end by 10:30.

On August 15: We may pray for wisdom, as Solomon did. But sometimes the wisdom of God comes in words that are difficult to understand.

On August 22: Solomon prayed that God would confirm for him the covenant promises made to David. Can we claim to be a part of the covenant? Are we prepared to accept the difficulties and trials of faithful life along with the good promises?

Journeys Class:

Journeys will read and discuss Chapters 18 through 20 in the Book of Acts on August 15. We meet in-person at FPC in the Wilson Parlor at 9:45 a.m. You can also participate online using this link: https://ncsu.zoom.us/j/9128525675. Please notify Eric Wiebe, Andy Henry, or Paul Baldasare if you plan to participate via Zoom so the hybrid meeting equipment will be ready. We look forward to seeing you.

Scratch Class:

This Sunday we will resume our discussion of chapters in Barbara Brown Taylor's book, Home By Another Way. The Zoom link is here: https://duke.zoom.us/j/93070281428. As always, come whether you've had time to read or not. New faces are welcome!
