

Dear Old Testament Scholars:

For our wrap-up discussion on Sunday, October 11, I propose that we think through what we've read (plus any memories you have of other texts from the OT) under several categories. For each, see if you can think of one or two passages that might indicate how the Ancient Israelites understood these topics.

Here are a few, but feel free to raise others as well. And feel free to raise questions you have about the OT. There is no such thing as a stupid question!

1. nature
2. family life
3. guilt and innocence
4. how we know right from wrong
- 5 how we know God's will
