

COMMUNITY INVITATION

Women of FPC are invited to attend a virtual workshop series called Finding Freedom: White Women Taking On Our Own White Supremacy. It's scheduled for five consecutive Thursday evenings (August 5 – September 2, 2021) from 5:30 – 8 pm EST.

Finding Freedom founders Evangeline Weiss and Kari Pointe (<https://wearefindingfreedom.org/>), has been a response to our Black allies' call that we whites have our own work to do and need to do it ourselves. And that we as white women have our own journey to take – understanding our collusion, moving beyond our guilt and shame, and discerning our power to act on our racial justice commitments.
